Document Title: Maccabi Golf Club now has a home!

Issue Date: September 12, 2011

The Cranbourne Golf Club is delighted to announce that it is now the official home for the Maccabi Golf Club.

The General Committee and Members of Cranbourne Golf Club have always been proud of their association with Maccabi through the hosting of regular events.

Recently, a commitment from both the Committees of Cranbourne Golf Club and Maccabi Golf Club, has seen the establishment of improved services to the Maccabi Members by way of a tailored membership package titled "Friends of Cranbourne". This Membership has enabled new Members to visit and play at Cranbourne and develop and foster friendships within the Jewish Community.

Cranbourne Golf Club was formed in 1951, following discriminatory practices against minority groups by a significant number of Victorian Golf Clubs. Over the past 60 years, the Club has provided a premium facility for the Jewish community to enjoy the game of golf. The strengthening of the relationship with Maccabi will help ensure that Cranbourne continues to provide such a service for many years to come.

On the afternoon of Thursday 6th October, the Maccabi Golf Club will be holding the inaugural Kleid Gordon golf event at Cranbourne Golf Club. This will be followed by Maccabi Golf Club's Annual General Meeting and a dinner. Non-Maccabi members are more than welcome to attend both the Golf and Dinner. The evening will also mark the unveiling of the honour boards, as well as a trophy cabinet that will be on permanent display at the Club.

Maccabi Golf Club President Allen Garb commented "this is a great initiative of both Maccabi Golf Club and Cranbourne Golf Club. We expect to see many of our Members form an affiliation with both of these Clubs."

Cranbourne Golf Club President Michael Warren is most excited about this development and commented "Cranbourne is delighted to formalise the relationship with Maccabi Golf Club, and strengthen the longstanding bond between the two Clubs"
